The Honorable Ted Stevens, Chairman
Subcommittee on Defense
Committee on Appropriations
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Ted:

This is in response to your letter concerning the [redacted] visit. You know that I am concerned that we be responsive to your needs. The new Director of our Office of Legislative Liaison, Chuck Briggs, plans to meet with you to discuss that and other subjects of mutual interest as soon as it is convenient for you to see him.

STAT

The [redacted] incident appears to have involved a series of communication glitches, which included our search for a report presumably used to brief Senator Baker--which turned out to be three raw field reports used to brief Senator Byrd. The hour then being late in the evening, our folks understood that the materials could be brought to your office in the morning. And so it went: the effort was made but the track was wrong.

STAT

Be assured that we look to a continuing, professional, responsive relationship.

Sincerely,

WJ/ PHL

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
